

Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site

2007 King Holiday Events

SATURDAY, JANUARY 13

6th Annual “Living Legends Speak” Historic Ebenezer Baptist Church, 2:00-3:30 pm

Reverend Joseph L. Roberts, retired Senior Pastor of Atlanta’s Ebenezer Baptist Church, shares intimate accounts of his 30-year pastorate following Martin Luther King, Sr.

Also featuring The United States Naval Academy Gospel Choir

MONDAY, JANUARY 15

Open House of Dr. King’s Birth Home 9:00 am-6:00 pm

Tour the actual home where Martin Luther King, Jr. was born 78 years ago on January 15, 1929

Simply walk to the front door of 501 Auburn Ave and relive the childhood experiences of young Martin Luther King, Jr.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19

Film Screening: “Sisters of Selma” Visitor Center, 7:30-9:00 pm

“Sisters of Selma” offers a spiritual take on the Selma, Alabama voting rights marches of 1965. Often unsung foot soldiers, Catholic nuns showed America a public protest never before seen from this group of women journeying nationwide

Presented by Image Film & Video and Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site

DAILY THROUGH AUGUST 31

“Red Was the Midnight: The 1906 Atlanta Race Riot” Visitor Center, 9:00 am-5:00 pm (until 6:00 pm Jan. 13-15)

An original exhibition about a forgotten race riot in Atlanta one century ago, leading to the development of historic “Sweet Auburn.” Explore the riot’s origins, details and impact on the city and its people

Presented by Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site and Atlanta History Center with support from the Georgia Humanities Council

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE
& OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

